Coronation of Oswald II and Kaye Couer d'Ennuï – Des Moines

Congratulations to King Oswald II and Queen Kaye on their rise to the throne on September 17th, in Couer d'Ennuï.

During their final court before stepping down, Anton and Isabeau presented Heinrich with an AoA, and Wolfgang and Branwell a Torse, for their work during Lilies War. For pictures, please see page 3.

Long live the King and Queen, and long live Calontir!

Raid or Trade

Raid or Trade was once again held at the site of the Des Moines Renaissance Faire, and very much like last year it was HOT!!!

Thankfully the archers were in the shady area again. Baron Hugh du Puy was running the archery this year, and if you know Hugh, you know to expect the unexpected.

I cannot remember all the shoots but in one of them had camels carrying treasure and a rider. The target I shot at had a guy leading a camel. One round you were to shoot the guys because they were stealing your treasure, but you were penalized if you hit the camel. Another round you could hit the camel.

For another shoot we had to form teams of three and come up with a team name. Our team consisted of Cadlae, Marie of Cologne, and myself, and our name was the Fearless Fyrd Sisters. Hugh seemed to have difficulty saying our whole name and kept calling us Fyrd Sisters.

The last shoot Hugh had placed nine
